

What is Lexis? What is Westlaw?
How do law firms use them?

Featuring:

Jamie Furillo, Research Librarian, DLA Piper LLP

Wednesday, April 23rd, 2014

5:30 PM to 7:30 PM

New York Law School Library

185 West Broadway at Leonard St., New York, NY 10013

Students who attend this event will get an introduction to research on both the Westlaw and Lexis databases and learn how these databases are utilized in a law firm setting. Following the training, attendees will enjoy a short tour of the New York Law School library facilities and observe an extraordinary feat of architecture in a library setting!

Space is Limited.

Please RSVP by April 16th, 2014 to receive confirmation of attendance.

Send the information requested below in an email to:

Christopher Lund, LLAGNY Student Relations Committee

Email: christopher.lund13@my.stjohns.edu

✂-----

I would like to attend:

Name: _____

Library / School: _____

Phone number: _____

Email: _____

*This event is open to Library Students only. You do not need to be a LLAGNY member to attend.